

Kamishibai Story Theater

September 25 – November 20

Multiple library locations

Join us for a Japanese storytelling tradition called kamishibai. (kami = paper; shibai = theatre). A storyteller stands behind a little wooden theatre and reveals a series of illustrations as they narrate a story, doing all the characters' voices and the many sound effects. Twenty-six (26) library locations will host kamishibai story times for all ages. Enjoy also the nine kamishibai video performances posted on The Rebellious Miss Breed webpage.

Presented by Write Out Loud.
